

Davis & Elkins College
Acceptable Use Policy
For Technology Resources

This policy will set guidelines for the use of information technology at Davis & Elkins College, following the laws of the United States and West Virginia. Campus Internet, technology and computing resources are to be used appropriately and in a manner consistent with the mission and instructional, research, and administrative objectives of Davis & Elkins College.

Questions about this policy should be directed to Information Services Help Desk by calling 304-637-1233 or emailing HelpDesk@dewv.edu.

Acceptable use of resources includes:

- Instruction;
- Independent study;
- Official work of faculty, staff, students, offices, and departments;
- Official work of recognized student and campus organizations;
- Official work of agencies of the college;
- Occasional or incidental noncommercial, personal use by authorized users.

Technology and computing resources are shared resources, which need to be used collegially.

Collegial use includes:

- Using common sense;
- Using resources responsibly, for authorized purposes, and in an approved manner;
- Observing standards of decency;
- Respecting the privacy of others;
- Respecting the rights and wishes of others in the use of sounds and visuals in public areas;
- Being sensitive to the impact of your traffic on network performance;
- Practicing good stewardship of connect time, information storage space, printing facilities, processing capacity, and network services.

Davis & Elkins College's computing and information technology resources are of substantial benefit to everyone in the College community. However, benefit could be diminished appreciably if only a few people were to misuse these resources.

Examples of unacceptable use include, but are not limited to:

- Any use that violates
 - Local, state, and /or federal law;
 - Copyrights or other intellectual property rights;
 - License agreements;
 - Purchase agreements;
 - Acceptable use agreements of any other entity traversed or used through Davis & Elkins College resources.
