

LEADING THE WAY

OUTDOOR RECREATION MANAGEMENT

Mark Douglas, Ph.D.

Director, Outdoor Recreation Management
Robert C. Byrd Center for Hospitality and Tourism
Phone: 304-637-1475 Email: douglasm@dewv.edu

HIGHLIGHTS

"Outdoor Recreation Management is a growing field in which graduates are qualified to work in a variety of settings, including recreation management agencies, outdoor education, outdoor tourism and adaptive recreation management."

POPULAR COURSES

- Outdoor Skills Series (examples include: Backpacking, Climbing, Navigation, Winter Activities)
- Recreational Tourism
- Leadership in Recreation Management
- Recreation and Community Development
- Sustainable Recreation and Eco-Tourism
- Risk Management
- Adaptive Recreation Methods and Techniques

Davis & Elkins College
LEADING THE WAY

D&E does not discriminate. For more information: <http://www.dewv.edu/non-discrimination>

OUTDOOR RECREATION MANAGEMENT

Mark Douglas, Ph.D.

Director, Outdoor Recreation Management
Robert C. Byrd Center for Hospitality and Tourism
Phone: 304-637-1475 Email: douglasm@dewv.edu

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

- National Forest Service
- Senior Centers
- Non-Profit Organizations
- YMCA
- Division of Forestry
- Ski Resorts
- Outdoor Climbing Facilities
- Summit Bechtel Reserve - Boy Scouts

OPPORTUNITIES IN OUTDOOR RECREATION

- Seneca Rocks Park
- Park Ranger
- Outdoor Recreation Business Owner
- Snowshoe Resort
- Canaan Valley Resort
- Veterans Administration Hospital
- Parks and Recreation Facilities Planner
- Recreation Specialist- U. S. Military

39 Undergraduate Programs

13:1 Student to Faculty Ratio

<800 Students Enrolled

